

Celebration of Women and Music Through a Jewish Lens

Description

In this stimulating, interactive lecture Dr. Green discusses what a conductor “really” does and the unique challenges of being a woman conductor. Sharing personal stories and insights of the history of the Los Angeles Jewish Symphony, Dr. Green discusses her choices of repertoire centered around women composers and performers. Come be inspired and intrigued - join Dr. Green for this informative and entertaining presentation.