Los Angeles Jewish Symphony

Dr. Noreen Green, Founding Artistic Director

Mark Kashper, Founding Concertmaster

HELP BRING MUSIC TO LIFE FOR 750 STUDENTS

VOLUNTEER DAY
JOIN US MON, DEC 7

A Patchwork of Cultures:
Exploring the Sephardic-Latino Connection

Monday, December 7, 2026
8:00 AM–12:00 PM

Adat Ari El | Valley Village

Los Angeles Jewish Symphony free program for area elementary schools

Experience the program firsthand while helping ~750 fourth- and fifth-grade students explore Sephardic Jewish and Latino musical and cultural traditions through instruments, movement, and live orchestral music.

THE MORNING

8:00 AM	Volunteer arrival Coffee & bagels provided!
8:15 AM	Walkthrough & volunteer assignments
8:50–10:45 AM	Student arrival & activities
11:00 AM	Orchestra concert
12:00 PM	Concert end & dismissal support

HOW YOU CAN HELP

- Student guides & ushers: welcome buses, guide activity rotations, and help seat students for the concert (no music experience needed)
- Instrument petting zoo: strings, winds, and percussion (music knowledge appreciated)
- Activity area: coloring and worksheets (no music experience needed)
- Dance & movement: help lead movement and rhythm activities (no dance experience needed)
- Dismissal: guide classes safely back to buses

INDIVIDUALS & GROUPS WELCOME | MOST ROLES REQUIRE NO MUSICAL EXPERIENCE

Michael and Lori Milken Family Foundation · US Bank · Trader Joe's · The Foundation: Jewish Community Foundation Los Angeles · The Rosalinde and Arthur Gilbert Foundation · FuenteLatina · LA County Arts & Culture · DCA Department of Cultural Affairs · Kashper Family Foundation · Bertrand's Music · The Recording Industry's Music Performance Trust Fund · Hennings-Fischer Foundation

A lot of music, a lot of fun, and a lot of helping hands needed!