

Beverly Hills, CA
(Los Angeles Co.)
Beverly Hills Courier
(Cir. W. 44,000)

DEC 14 2001

Allen's V. O. B. 231 1888
0-38

and Aminadav Ailon's "Or Ha-am.
Featured will be Cantor Eyan
Kend, soprano Ariella Vaccarino and the Milken Community High School choir under the direction of Noreen Green. 0-38

The Hollywood Klezmer ensemble will join the symphony in Sid Robinson's "Suite for Klezmer Band and Orchestra."

Tickets are $25-$45 for adults. A special rate is offered at $15 each for families of four or more. Ticket information: (818) 753-6681 or www.jewishsymphony.com

MUSIC APPRECIATION—Beverly Hills residents, Dr. Bernard and Judy Franklin, brought 30 of their colleagues to the opening concert of the Los Angeles Jewish Symphony at Beverly Hills High School. The Franklins are board members of the Symphony, and Dr. Franklin is a past chairman. Pictured (left to right) are: Judy and Dr. Franklin with Dr. Noreen Green, Artistic Director of the orchestra. The Symphony's next concert, called "Celebrate Freedom," will also be performed at Beverly Hills High School on March 10, 2002. For information on upcoming concerts, call 818-758-6681, or visit the website at www.lajewishsymphony.com.