BE PART OF HISTORY

Tickets are going fast for Hadassah Southern California's "Women of Valor: A Celebration of Women in Music," Sunday, April 16 at 2:30 p.m. The world class concert venue Royce Hall at UCLA, is the perfect setting for this important event. The concert features the premiere performance of the Women of Valor Oratorio by gifted composer Andrea Clearfield, sponsored by HSC. The Los Angeles Jewish Symphony and renowned vocal soloists, conducted by Artistic Director Dr. Noreen Green, will perform at the concert.

The event is supported by the Metro and Northern ARCs, and the excitement that has already been generated for this project has attracted volunteers from all over HSC. A dynamic committee of over 125 women is hard at work spreading the word that Sunday, April 16, Royce Hall at UCLA is the place to be.

Hadassah is proud to be part of this groundbreaking event in Jewish culture. This musical tapestry of Jewish women will delight everyone present. Each and every Hadassah member will be thinking, "This music has been created because of Hadassah, because of me, because I am Hadassah." Every time this piece of music is played in perpetuity, the program will read, "Women of Valor Oratorio, sponsored by Hadassah Southern California." We have a right to be proud.
