

The Los Angeles Jewish Symphony

Noreen Green, Artistic Director

1999 - 2000 SEASON

The Light of Helfman: Generations of Music
from the Brandeis-Bardin Institute

Sunday, December 12, 1999 at 7:00 p.m.
Valley Beth Shalom Synagogue
Encino

Featuring:
Jordan Charnatsky, Ariella Vaccarino,
David Low, Shira Adler, and David Katz

Max Helfman's Yiddish Adaptation of Handel's Judas Maccabeus.
Also music by Castelnuovo-Tedesco, Richey, Aloni, Ziesl, and Strassburg.

Women of Valor
A Celebration of Women in Music

Sunday, April 16, 2000 at 2:30 p.m.
Royce Hall
UCLA

Featuring:
Hila Pitman, Gail Rubinbaum

Honoring Jewish women in a program of breathtaking music by talented women composers featuring the World Premiere of Andrea Clearfield's "Women of Valor" along with captivating music by Meira Warshauer, Tsippi Fleischer, and Fanny Mendelssohn.

Grossinger's...
The Last Resort

Sunday, June 11, 2000 at 7:00 p.m.
Kavli Theater
Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Plaza

Featuring:
Broadway's Dorothy Loudon,
Seinfeld's Estelle Harris,
The Topper's Budd Friedman
more Stars to be announced

A new Broadway Musical Comedy based on the life of Jennie Grossinger, the extraordinary Jewish woman who turned her family's failing Catskill mountains farm into the most famous resort of its time.

Subscribe Now and Save! - (818) 753-6681

Join the Los Angeles Jewish Symphony in its 6th Magical Season!

Visit us on the Web! - www.lajewishsymphony.com